

RYAN CAYABYAB

Whether it's Basil Valdez's songs you remember, or Smokey Mountain's socially conscious hits, the choral music, musical theater, TV shows, or Christmas a capella music, it's Ryan Cayabyab in the midst of those memories through the decades.

St. Aedan's: The Saint Peter's University Church presents a milestone musical tribute celebrating nearly 50 years of the music and songs of renowned Filipino National Artist for Music Ryan Cayabyab on Friday, Oct. 4 at 7 p.m., for the 5th season of Arts on Bergen.

Maestro Cayabyab just received the prestigious Ramon Magsaysay Award for work that has "defined and inspired Filipino popular music across generations" and is a Vatican Pro Ecclesia et Pontifice honoree for distinguished service to the Church for his body of sacred music.

OPM icon, musician, arranger, TV host, recording artist, songwriter, composer of choral, theater, film and sacred music, mentor and educator, "Mr. C" is joined on stage by a diverse roster of talents — Chris Ignacio, Kristian Espiritu, Kirby Asunto, Cutuy Herrero, Michael Protacio, Joy Tamayo, Antoni Mendezona, Jared Martin, Rogelio Peñaverde Jr., The San Lorenzo Ruiz Choir, the Kayumanggi Chorale, Saint Peter's University SCHOLA and Aidan C. McMullen Chorale, and University music director Dr. Joseph Legaspi — to support the University and Parish music program, including the Arts on Bergen community outreach that offers free diverse musical events in the fall and spring.

Celebrate the music of a lifetime and the soundtrack of so many memories.

***

The Music of Ryan Cayabyab

Arts on Bergen, St. Aedan's: The Saint Peter's University Church

Celebrating the virtuosity of Ryan Cayabyab

Friday, 13 September 2019 16:20

---

800 Bergen Avenue, Jersey City, NJ 07306

10.04.19 @ 7 p.m./ $50 & $25

For info/tickets at $50 premium & $25 general seating: St. Aedan's (201.433.6800)|Arts on Bergen on Facebook|ryancayabyab.brownpapertickets.com|Dr. Joseph Legaspi ( jlegaspi@saintpeters.edu ) or Robert P. De Tagle, IPEAK Services ( ipeaksvcs@gmail.com )