

Sam Milby (pictured above in the cover of Men's Health's latest edition) is finishing a

Can Sam break into Hollywood?

Friday, 06 January 2012 18:17

romantic-comedy indie film together with Heart Evangelista before leaving for the U.S., where he will stay for at least three months to audition for projects.

The movie, under Reality Films, will be megged by Paul Soriano and is expected to be completed in middle of January.

Sam will also fulfill a concert commitment in Dubai with Toni Gonzaga, who is Paul's girlfriend, before flying to New York, where he will be based.

The Jan. 27 Dubai show will also feature Toni's sister Alex Gonzaga.

He is coming back in the middle of February, reportedly to perform as a special guest at a concert to be topbilled by Anne Curtis.

"Nasa U.S. na si Sam by the time Anne stages her concert," Sam's talent manager Erick Raymundo told Malaya.

"Kaya, Sam is coming home purposely for that."

The 27-year-old actor-singer, who rose to fame via "Pinoy Big Brother" reality show, will also be featured in the Star Mgc Tour 2012 at the Waikiki Shell in Honolulu, Hawaii, and in the concert "Teleserye Princes" in Union City, California, on March 31, with Gerald Anderson, Enchong Dee, Xian Lim, Rayver Cruz and Pokwang.