

Award-winning Filipino actor Sid Lucero (far right) with his date beside him, cousin Bianca Rogoff (daughter of Cherie Gil), at Monday night's 38th annual International Emmy Awards at Hilton New York, where he was nominated in the Best Actor category for ABS-CBN's drama series "Dahil May Isang Ikaw," also nominated for Best Telenovela. With them are ABS-CBN producers Nars Gulmatico (far left) and Annaliza Goma. Lucero lost to British veteran actor Bob Hoskins for "The Street." Portugal's "My Love" won the Best Telenovela trophy. Last year, Angel Locsin was nominated in the Best Actress category for "Lobo." She lost to veteran British actress Julie Walters ("A Short Stay in Switzerland"). (Photo by Sonny Sampayan)

Sid Lucero, Nars Gulmatico, and Nars Gulmatico show their nominee medals

At Tony's Di Napoli on Times Square with dinner hosts Sonny and Edith Sampayan.