The ceremony was attended by Pintô International Honorary Chairs Josie Natori, David and Susan Rockefeller, Ambassador Teodoro Locsin, Jr. and Lourdes Barcelon Locsin, ABAC Chair Joanne de Asis, Mercedes Zobel de Ayala and Fernando Zobel de Ayala.

Donna Karan, who owns the non-profit space Urban Zen, was also present to show her support.

The Philippine Consulate General New York was represented in the event.

The exhibit was open to the public from 8 p.m. of that day until 8 p.m. the following day.

Prior to the event, a press conference was hosted by the Philippine Consulate on May 17, 2017 where Pintô Founder, Joven Cuanang and Dr. Luca Parolari, both Chairs of Pintô International, presented to the media the project which aims to promote cultural diplomacy in the United States and Europe through contemporary art exhibits.
