

Queens, New York commemorates Philippine Independence Day

Written by Philippine Consulate General - New York
Monday, 26 June 2017 17:40

Honorees with Queens Borough President Melinda Katz (center). From left, Remy Patrick C. Lavilla, Benjamin Angelo Santos, Judith Fenster, Aida Bartolome, Consul General Theresa Dizon-de Vega, Fr. Kevin Abela and Feliza Matela.

The Borough of Queens in New York, one of the most ethnically diverse places in the world and the area with the largest concentration of Filipinos and Filipino-Americans in the U.S. Northeast, celebrated Philippine Independence Month at Queen's Borough Hall on June 22, 2017.

Queens, New York commemorates Philippine Independence Day

Written by Philippine Consulate General - New York
Monday, 26 June 2017 17:40

The commemorative program included the participation of Queens Borough President Melinda Katz, Philippine Consul General Theresa Dizon-de Vega, and members of the Filipino-American Community in Queens.

The event was co-sponsored by the Foundation for Filipino Artists, United Staffing Registry, Kinding Sindaw, and Batangas Varsitarian.

Katz extolled the many contributions of the Filipino-American community to the diversity of Queens and handed out Certificates of Honor to de Vega, Fr. Kevin Abels, Parish Priest of St. Sebastian Church which has the largest Filipino-American congregation in Queens, Ms. Judith Fenster, young scholar Remy Patrick C. Lavilla, Community Leader Feliza Matela, and young achiever Benjamin Angelo Santos.

A special Proclamation in honor of Ms. Aida Bartolome of the Foundation for Filipino Artists, a longtime leader and cultural advocate, for her efforts at helping to hold the Philippine Day event every year was likewise given by the Borough of Queens.

Queens, New York commemorates Philippine Independence Day

Written by Philippine Consulate General - New York
Monday, 26 June 2017 17:40

~~Consulate General of the Philippines in New York City, New York, USA, June 26, 2017~~

Queens, New York commemorates Philippine Independence Day

Written by Philippine Consulate General - New York
Monday, 26 June 2017 17:40

Mr. Eric Santos, RN and CEO of United Staffing Registry, Inc., delivers the closing

Queens, New York commemorates Philippine Independence Day

Written by Philippine Consulate General - New York
Monday, 26 June 2017 17:40

Young Fil-Am performer Julian Pigao with his rendition of Freddie Aguilar's classic

Queens, New York commemorates Philippine Independence Day

Written by Philippine Consulate General - New York
Monday, 26 June 2017 17:40

Part of the standing room only audience at the event.