

Jaycees celebrate centennial with star-studded concert

Written by Administrator

Tuesday, 11 August 2015 10:46

---

Gail Banawis (kneeling) and the Noli Me Tangere, The Musical Cast. (Photo by Jayne A. Quan)

Junior Chamber International (JCI, also known as the Jaycees) Philippine-New York hosted “100 Years of JCI Impact: A Musical Celebration,” a fundraising concert and reception on July 18, 2015 at the historic Marjorie S. Deane Little Theater in midtown Manhattan.

Jaycees celebrate centennial with star-studded concert

Written by Administrator

Tuesday, 11 August 2015 10:46

---

JCI, formed in 1915, is a membership-based non-profit organization of young active citizens aged 18 to 40 who are engaged and committed to creating positive impact in their communities.

It has more than 11 million alumni, 200,000 members and 5,000 local organizations (including JCI Philippine-New York) in more than 100 countries.

The fundraiser was held in collaboration with Event4Good, a New York-based events production company servicing non-profits, founded by project chair and Jaycee member Romainne Luis.

Proceeds benefitted Street of Dreams project, which provides performing arts workshops and scholarships to children from low-income households in the Philippines.

This project was started by Miss Saigon alum and the concert's musical director, Miguel Braganza II.

Jaycees celebrate centennial with star-studded concert

Written by Administrator
Tuesday, 11 August 2015 10:46

Jayne A. Quan | Jaycees and members with the cast of the musical celebration. (Photo by

Jaycees celebrate centennial with star-studded concert

Written by Administrator

Tuesday, 11 August 2015 10:46

---

American Swiss Ballet Company. (Photo by CJ Zenarosa)