Garnering awards for her talent and the opportunity to perform at different iconic stages has been the culmination of hard work and her passion for music.

With her sultry and soulful singing style, Angel has captured the audience from well-known music lounges and bars all over where she can be seen.

GEO ED REBUCAS has made himself recognizable to international TV viewers thru Pilipinas Got Talent as a finalist in Season 3.

Gaining more than applause from the experience, he received valuable vocal training and performance lessons which he applied to his innate talent.
