She will share the stage with comedienne Ai-Ai de las Alas, The Voice Philippines Kids' Antonette Tismo, and Hamilton: A New American Musical's Christine Allado.

Since her first appearance on the Philippine pop charts at the age of 12 with her hit songs "Mr. DJ" and "Kahit Maputi Na Ang Buhok Ko," Cuneta's career has spanned almost 40 years.

Cuneta went on to record the classic Original Pilipino Music (OPM) songs "Bituing Walang Ningning," "Ikaw" and "Maging Sino Ka Man."

She has recorded 40 albums, starred in 53 films and 10 television shows, and received numerous Guillermo Mendoza Memorial Scholarship Foundation (GMMSF) Box Office Entertainment Awards.

Her best-known movies include "Dear Heart" (1982), "Pangako Sa 'Yo" (1993), "Madrasta" (1996), "Crying Ladies" (2003), and the critically-acclaimed "Caregiver" (2008).

In her Queens concert, Cuneta will delight her fans by performing her classics and new songs from her upcoming album.

Filipino composer and arranger Louie Ocampo is the show's musical director who is best known for his collaborations with Cuneta and singers Martin Nievera, Regine Velasquez and Joey Albert.

His numerous hits include "Tell Me," "Kahit Isang Saglit" and "You Are My Song."

Ocampo has also created theme songs and music for various TV shows, commercials and movies.
