

All Nippon Airways is one of the largest airlines and flag carrier in Japan.

Fly with ANA to the new Asian resort destination, Manila!

All Nippon Airways (ANA), Japan's leading carrier, is celebrating its 25th anniversary of the international service in July 2011.

Year after year, ANA has expanded its network to serve customers from all over the world.

On Feb. 27, 2011, ANA introduced the daily Manila flight from Tokyo as a new Asian destination.

Manila, the capital of the Philippines, is one of the biggest air traffic hubs in Southeast Asia.

ANA's new Narita (Tokyo)-Manila service is not only linking the two big cities but also connecting the major cities all over North America by convenient transfer via Narita.

ANA's current North America network includes routes from New York, Washington, D.C., Chicago, San Francisco, Los Angeles and Honolulu to Tokyo.

In 2010, ANA launched the brand new service brand: "Inspiration of Japan,*" providing luxurious services and enhancing comfort.

The newly designed First and Business class cabin products provide the fully flat beds with all aisle access.

The JFK-Narita route Shell
Program is a model of the

The "Inspiration of Japan" ANA Business Staggered on the JFK-Narita route.