Nadres revealed that she has been in her position for less than one month, but is raring to work on promoting business and trade in New York City, in partnership with foreign players, especially her home country, the Philippines.

Cristobal congratulated Nadres for landing an important role in the Mayor's Office, and expressed his enthusiasm in working on potential projects in technology, design, and Micro,
