SOUTH SAN FRANCISCO — LBC Express, the biggest cargo and courier global Filipino company, supports boxing pound-for-pound king Manny Pacquiao against Juan Manuel Marquez in Las Vegas, Nevada on Nov. 12, 2011.

LBC senior vice president for marketing Javier C. Mantecon said that LBC has been supporting Pacquiao in all of its fights for years now.

“LBC has always been there for Pacquiao through fight advertising sponsorships in the Philippines. Today, we are again supporting Pacquiao against Marquez, but this time LBC will be there inside the ring when they finally square off,” Mantecon said.

Mantecon added that Pacquiao best represents the global Filipino which LBC has been servicing for 61 years now.

“Like LBC, Pacquiao delivers with speed and precision,” he added.

“In LBC, we take pride in the high level of service our customers receive. Our customers can rely on LBC to deliver their boxes on time and safely.”

As proven in its track record, LBC gives importance to every customer who has come to trust its services all these years.
