

The Association of Filipino Teachers of America (AFTA) is inviting all teachers in the New York tri-state area to its annual professional development workshop for teachers on Nov. 20 at Lovin' Life Learning Center at 4 West 43rd Street (between 5th and 6th Avenues) in Manhattan.

The event is part of AFTA's mission to persevere in achieving the highest level of competency in the teaching profession.

Facilitators are Rowena Adalia (Strategies in Teaching science), Roger Lipon, Ph.D. (Using Manipulatives in Teaching Mathematics), and Nick Miraflores (Creative Strategies in Teaching ESL).

Certificates of attendance will be distributed.

Prizes will be raffled off and lunch will be served.

Please RSVP by sending e-mail to PenJave@aol.com or Cajigz2002@yahoo.com or call Pennie at 347.326.8778.
