The National Filipino-American Republicans have announced it will send a delegation of their officers and members to the Philippines who will be there in time for the coming official state visit of U.S. President Donald Trump.

It was announced by the organization's founding President Ernesto Gange.

More than 30 Filipino-American officers and members of the organization will be coming from many parts of the United States and the Philippines to join the giant delegation.

At last count there are about more than 10 individuals coming from the Philadelphia area alone, but the largest number of delegates are coming from the West Coast, mainly California.

The Filipino-American Republicans will be in most, if not all, the official appearances of Mr. Trump and Philippine President Rodrigo Duterte, while the former is in an official visit to the Philippines.

As of this writing those who will be counted as official members of the delegation and who have left from California for the Philippines on Nov. 3 are: Cecile C. Ramos, Chairman of the Board of Directors, National Filipino-American Republicans; Edwin Duterte, Edward Duterte Abad, Reynaldo Duterte Abad, Maximo F. Fortu, Fernandico Q. Gonong, Jr., Ferdinand Z. Edralin, Lyka V. Casas, Jennifer G. Wolfe, Jeff S. Oatridge, Marc Caratao, Eduardo Caratao, Maximo
