The sacred image of Our Lady of the Poor is turned over by Edith Ordoñez, RN (fourth from right) to Norma Cruz Domingo (fifth from left), both of Jersey City, N.J., after the Blessed Mother spent two weeks in the Perez home on Henry Street.

The Franciscans of Our Lady of the Poor (FLP), led by Gloria Price and Sister Remy Guerrero (third and fourth from left), led the recitation of the Holy Rosary and offering of prayers for the sick and the poor all over the world.

Also in photo are (from left) Hydelyn Bermoy, Rick Abad, Marlen Cedeño (behind Edith Perez), Aster Loleng, Maryann Cruz and Engineer Julian “Jun” Loleng.
Paying homage to Our Lady of the Poor

Written by Administrator
Monday, 11 March 2013 13:39

Those who wish to invite the Blessed Mother and take part in FLP’s prayer for world peace and prosperity, call the FLP Care and Mentoring Center at 973.844.9502.

*****************************************************************************

Engineer Julian “Jun” Loleng offers a red rose to the love of his life, Aster, at the departure of the image of Our Lady of the Poor at the Perez residence in Jersey City.